Section 1. Proposed Science on Screen series

Below, please outline what the upcoming season of Science on Screen might look like at your theater. Include a minimum of three films (one of which must be a Sloan Foundation–sponsored film—visit <https://scienceonscreen.org/films?sloan=true> for a list), plus accompanying topic and speaker ideas. If selected for a grant, you are welcome but not obligated to stick to this outline.

Film 1 title:

Is it a Sloan film? Y / N

Brief film synopsis:

Topic of SoS presentation:

Potential speaker name(s) and title(s):

Event format (e.g. in theater, virtual, etc.):

Additional information (optional):

Film 2 title:

Is it a Sloan film? Y / N

Brief film synopsis:

Topic of SoS presentation:

Potential speaker name(s) and title(s):

Event format (e.g. in theater, virtual, etc.):

Additional information (optional):

Film 3 title:

Is it a Sloan film? Y / N

Brief film synopsis:

Topic of SoS presentation:

Potential speaker name(s) and title(s):

Event format (e.g. in theater, virtual, etc.):

Additional information (optional):

[Feel free to list any additional events you propose including in your series.]

How many screens do you have, and what the seating capacity of each? If you have multiple screens, please indicate which would be the venue(s) for Science on Screen.

How did COVID-19 closures impact your organization’s ability to screen films and offer educational programs? Please include your current opening status and capacity restrictions, if any, and describe programs (virtual, outdoor, drive-ins, etc) that you ran during your closure. How would you approach your Science on Screen season if COVID-19 necessitates more closures?

Describe briefly any changes you plan to make to your Science on Screen program during your Spring 2021 series. How will you build on your successes, and how might you address any challenges?

Can you participate in the National Evening of Science on Screen on March 24, 2021?

Section 2. Key staff members

Please share below CVs or bios of key project staff who will implement and supervise your Science on Screen program.

Section 3. Budget

Please download the budget template at the link below and use it to create a budget for your proposed Science on Screen series. Bear in mind that each theater selected for this grant must produce a minimum of three Science on Screen events during the course of the six-month grant period. Recipients of SoS alumni grants are not required to submit video recordings of programs.

Return your proposed budget with your application. Please include the name of your organization first in your budget document file name (e.g. Coolidge_Corner_Spring_2021_SoS_proposed_budget).
